

Download

---

Bestselling Charts Year-end charts Certifications References Category:2005 albums Category:Grammy Award for Best Rap Album Category:Capitol Records albums Category:Albums produced by Kanye West Category:Albums produced by Just Blaze Category:Albums produced by No I.D. Category:Albums produced by The Alchemist (musician) Category:Albums produced by Danger Mouse (musician) Category:Albums produced by Just Blaze Category:Albums produced by Mike Dean (record producer) Category:Albums produced by DJ Toomp Category:Albums produced by David Banner Category:Albums produced by Rockwilder Category:Albums produced by Dr. Dre Category:Albums produced by Pete Rock Category:Albums produced by DJ Premier Category:Albums produced by Emile Haynie Category:Albums produced by Key Wane Category:Albums produced by Mike Posner Category:Albums produced by Mark Batson Category:Albums produced by Timbaland Category:Albums produced by Fredwreck Category:Albums produced by Devin the Dude Category:Albums produced by The Smeezingtons Category:Albums produced by Kanye West"Arrow" shows us that sometimes, when the right choices are made, the best things in life can fall back into place. I'm pleased to say that Oliver's death has helped Malcolm Merlyn and, in the process, brought his family, Laurel and Thea, back together. Malcolm has started working with Oliver, and the two of them made a brilliant, and in some ways, a risky move. They have decided to confront Ra's al Ghul and the League of Assassins, and they have managed to track the group down. However, they do so on their own terms and under very dangerous conditions. This is not an easy decision to make, but one that Oliver and Malcolm agree upon. If Oliver and Malcolm manage to convince the League of Assassins to join the League and take down the Green Arrow, they are going to be asking a lot of Malcolm. There is no doubt that he will find himself in the cross hairs if the League and the Green

